Survival Saturdays

The Art of Survival

This program aims at the best of both worlds. Part of our time will be focused on developing our primitive skills including fire by friction, bow and arrow making, basketry, primitive musical instruments, traps, bowl burning, tanning hides, and more. When not working on our skills we will be wandering through the woods tracking animals, learning wild edible plants, building shelters, exploring creeks, and increasing our awareness through play.

- Who 9-13 year olds
- When 10 sessions, every other Saturday, beginning January 20-June 2, 9am-2pm, *See schedule below
- Where Meet at the Riekes Center. We will head off to nearby landscapes when we are not working on projects at the Center
